About Jonathan Wallett and Elite Coaching Golf Academy

Jonathan Wallett is an Advanced Fellow of the British PGA and is ranked a top 50 instructor for over 10 years by Europe's No 1 selling magazine, Today's Golfer. He is just the 62nd PGA Professional to be awarded Master status in the 120 year history of the PGA. Jon has coached part-time on the DP World Tour for 15 years and coached players to Tour Wins, as well as being a National Coach for Hong Kong. He has authored 7 books on elite performance and is a frequent speaker at Coaching Conferences in Europe and Asia.

From conducting a research project over 5 years on the World's Major Tours, Jon formulated the 'Accelerated Player Performance Model' which he has coached to a worldwide network of Coaches in over 25 countries. This model assists players to score lower quickly and understand the critical keys to success in elite golf.

'I first started working with Jon when I was 14 years old and have attended these camps every year for 10 years in a row! Jon is undoubtedly the best coach for helping players build systems to score lower and I would strongly recommend these camps to every ambitious player'

Max Schliesing, Swiss Male Amateur Player of the Year 2024, World Ranking 130
